

Pharmasave Clinic Addition

The Pier Pharmacy design project consists of a two-storey Medical Clinic addition to an existing, shed-roof-shaped pharmacy building. The design is a response to difficult site geometry, and a sloped site. The modern-style design creates a low-profile facade, with a canopied extension to the existing pharmacy entrance. The colour scheme attempts to reflect the colour program of the Client's marketing graphics.

